

Student Welfare Fund Vice President Visits Presidents and University Deputies of Islamic Denominations

Good News Welfare Facilities Deputy Student Welfare Fund for Students of Islamic Denominations University

Dr. Solati, Vice President of Administration, Finance and Resource Management of Students' Welfare Fund, met with the Honorable Dr. Mokhtari, President of the Islamic Denominations University and Vice Presidents

During the meeting, Dr. Mokhtari, President of the Islamic Denominations University, referred to the extensive activities of the Islamic Denominations University in various fields, especially in the last two years, and highlighted the growing trend and increased student recruitment at the Islamic Denominations University at all levels. He emphasized: This level of welcoming of the younger generation to study at Islamic Denominations University shows the families' trust in this university which unfortunately we accept part of this level due to lack of facilities and educational, welfare and accommodation

The Presidency of the Islamic Denominations University continued to address the basic needs of the university, particularly in the areas of welfare, dormitories, facilities for students, and other matters related to the welfare fund's responsibilities and called for its assistance with the university

Mr. Solati, Vice President of Administration, Finance and Resource Management of the Student Welfare Fund, also expressed his satisfaction with the visit and heard the report of the activities of the Islamic Denominations University promising in various fields such as student loans, welfare issues such as dormitory and nutrition and other facilities. Islamic Denominations

In the meeting, which was attended by the deputies of the Islamic Denominations University and the welfare fund managers, the two sides emphasized the development and enhancement of bilateral donor cooperation, which heralds the beginning of a new chapter of student welfare cooperation with the Islamic Denominations University, and promises for university students

