

Issue 50 of "Approximate Studies of Islamic Denominations"

published

Issue 50: The Progressive Studies of Islamic Denominations Magazine - Forouqe Vahdat - Islamic Denominations University printed and published articles and contents by Shiita and Sunni scholars.

According to Public Relations, the journal "Approximate Studies of Islamic Denominations" which have scientific extension, published by the Islamic Denominations Studies Review Commission of the country, is also indexed in the Islamic World Science Citation Database (ISC). published its new article.

In the new issue (50) of this journal, which is published quarterly, articles such as:

Illustrations of Nahj al-Balagha and its Comparison with Qur'anic Images and Prophetic Narratives (Case Study: Visual Images); From Mohammad Reza Pircharagh, Abdolhadi Fiqhizadeh, Partial Conflict between General News and Special Comparison in Jurisprudential Principles of Denominations by Farzad Parsa, Sheikh al-Tusi's views on the semantics of mere science and its function in the interpretation of al-Tabbiyan ((Case Study: The Name of the Subject and Exegesis of Exaggeration) of Ali Asudi, Zabihah of the Book in the Qur'anic Verses and Farriqein's Narratives of Vahid Shahandeh and Ali Maleki in the Semantic Range of the Lord in The Holy Quran has been published by Morteza Ghasemi Hamed, Seyed Mohammad Mir Hosseini, Mojtaba Shirani.

The Arabic and English abstracts also appear in the last pages of this issue.

