

Publication of the second issue of the journal "New Islamic Civilization in the Mirror of Approximation" by the Vice Chancellor for Research of the University of Islamic Denominations

The Vice Chancellor for Research of the University of Islamic Denominations published the second issue of the journal "New Islamic Civilization in the Mirror of Approximation".

In this issue, materials have been published with the following titles:

Recreating Islamic civilization in the light of the four pillars of faith / Ali Zouelam, Mohammad Reza Pircheragh

Recognition of the concept of "Islamic Ummah" based on Islamic sources and texts / Hadi Rajabi;

Civilization Analysis of Governance / Leadership in Shiite Culture / Seyed Alireza Vasei;

The relationship between approximation and the flourishing of civilization based on the lived experience of Muslims in the flourishing era of Islamic civilization (4th and 5th lunar centuries) / Mohammad Baghestani Gozehgar;

New strategies of Islamic civilization for the realization of peaceful coexistence / Aminullah Salar Zehi;

Institutions of Civilization and the Development of Convergence in the Islamic World / Rasool Norouzi Firooz.

Informs professors, graduate students, seminary and university researchers and scholars, the journal "New Islamic Civilization in the Mirror of Approximation" is on the verge of obtaining a license and a scientific-research degree, and God willing, its articles will enjoy its benefits from the third issue onwards.

